Press Release - For Immediate Release

Elk Point, S.D. – State's Attorney Jerry A. Miller said today that Michael Little, 21, Sioux City, IA, was found to be in violation of his probation on October 18, 2010, as ruled by the Court at a probation adjudication hearing. Following the disposition hearing held in the 1st Circuit Court, in Union County on October 18, 2010, Little was found to have violated his probation for having used controlled substances and failing to pay his monetary obligations as ordered by the Court. The Court sentenced Little to 5 years in the South Dakota State Penitentiary with 1 year suspended. Little's probation stemmed from a conviction on the charge of first degree escape, a class 4 felony.
