Press Release - For Immediate Release

Elk Point, S.D. – State's Attorney Jerry A. Miller said today that Kodi Dillon, a 19 year old man from Jefferson, SD admitted to a violation of his supervised probation at a court hearing on June 11, 2012. Dillon received a sentence of seven (7) years of supervised probation, and ten (10) days in the Union County Jail from the court due to his probation violation.

While Dillon was on probation the Union County Sheriffs Office responded to a report of an underage party and found that Dillon had attended the party and consumed an alcoholic beverage. Deputy Sheriff Stephanie Ryan cited Dillon for underage consumption and found that Dillon was in violation of the "no drink" provisions of his supervised probation.

The court did order that the suspended imposition of sentence for Dillon's original offense is to remain in place.
