Press Release - For Immediate Release

Elk Point, S.D. – State's Attorney Jerry A. Miller said today that Kelly Daugherty, age 37, from Sioux City IA, admitted to her second probation violation since being sentenced on July 16, 2007 on one count of possession of controlled substances (a class 4 felony), and Driving with a suspended license (a class 2 misdemeanor). The court's disposition in this felony probation file was a seven year sentence with three years suspended to the state penitentiary.

Daugherty was one of several individuals who were involved in a drug party at the Super 8 Hotel in North Sioux City, SD. Since her original conviction in 2007, Daugherty had a probation violation in 2009 and again in 2011. Following today's proceedings, Daugherty is being held until she is transported to state penitentiary by the Union County Sheriff.

The original case was investigated by Sgt. James Heeren with the North Sioux City Police Department.
