Press Release - For Immediate Release

Elk Point, S.D. – State's Attorney Jerry A. Miller announced today that Nicholas Johnson, age 30, a Sioux Falls, SD resident, plead guilty on Monday, August 29, 2011 in the 1st Circuit Court to one count of Driving Under the Influence (Alcohol) third offense, a class six felony. Johnson faces a potential maximum sentence up to two years in the South Dakota State Penitentiary, or a fine up to four thousand dollars, or both. The Court is required to revoke Johnson's driving privileges for at least one year following his release from custody on this third offense DUI charge.

Johnson was indicted on July 14, 2011 on the above listed charge. Johnson is currently out on bond awaiting sentencing. Johnson will be sentenced on October 3, 2011, at 11:00 a.m.
