Press Release - For Immediate Release

Elk Point, S.D. – State's Attorney Jerry A. Miller said today that Nicholas Jankiewicz, a 30 year old man from Sioux City, IA, admitted to a probation violation on February 13, 2012. Jankiewicz was on probation for a DUI 3rd, a class 6 felony conviction on February 7, 2011. The Court resentenced Jankiewicz's to a two (2) year sentence to the South Dakota State Penitentiary with two (2) years suspended. The Court then restarted Jankiewicz's two (2) years of supervised probation.

The probation violation in this arises from a contact by the Woodbury County Sheriff's office wherein deputies responding to Jankiewicz's residence found him in possession of alcohol and consuming alcohol in violation of his probation. Woodbury County deputies were at Jankiewicz's residence for other reasons.
